

The Lexington Arts and Crafts Ceramics Guild and Teen Pottery Class in collaboration with Via Lago Restaurant, Lexington Center sponsored the

9th Annual Soup Bowls for Hunger which raised $2,780.00 for the benefit of Lexington Interfaith Food Pantry

This year a donation of $2,780.00 was presented to Carolyn Wortman of the Interfaith Lexington Food Pantry by Kate Nie (Lexington High School, Junior) and Donna DeFelice (Via Lago). "Soup Bowls for Hunger" was coordinated and sponsored by Lynne Fisher of the LACS Ceramics Guild and Teen Pottery Class Instructor in collaboration with Donna DeFelice, Via Lago Restaurant, during the holiday season.

This represents the sale of 190 uniquely handcrafted bowls by the artisans and sold at Via Lago at $15.00/$20.00 each. In addition, a raffle of a beautiful, large, ceramic bowl created by Cynthia Samuelson of the Ceramics Guild, was proudly won by Margaret Brooks of Lexington.

*We appreciate the community's support of these efforts with their purchases.
100% of the proceeds went to support the Lexington Interfaith Food Pantry.*

L to R: Donna deFelice, Manager Via Lago
Kate Nie, LHS Junior & Lexington Arts & Crafts Teen Pottery
Carolyn Wortman, Lexington Interfaith Food Pantry

Teen Potter and
Lynne Fisher, LACS Ceramics Guild

