Dustin Knight

*Big, Loose & Easy Floral Watercolors
A Demonstration*

Sunday, September 16, 2018
2:00 ~ 4:00pm

Dustin Knight is a professional artist, educator and art writer. She earned her Masters in Fine Art from Pratt Institute in NYC and her MA in Art History from Boston University. She is a recipient of a NH State Fellowship for the Arts, a MacDowell Colony residency and a past Cummington Artist Colony resident.

Dustin is represented by galleries across the US, including Art Three in Manchester and the Ogunquit Art Association in Maine. She is a contributing writer to Art New England, a frequent juror and gives demonstrations and workshops in watercolor, art business and art history. Her work has appeared in Watercolor Magazine, Daniel Smith, Cheap Joe's and Ampersand Insider Newsletters.

Dustin's work is in many private and public collections, including Macy's, Acme and Oracles as well as numerous hospitals and New Hampshire public buildings.

Join us for an inspiring afternoon. Speak with the artist and with the many artists of the Guild and find out what it means to be part of this community of artists. Perhaps you will be inspired to take a class or join the group.
